For your child’s safety, Haddon Heights Baptist Church has established a security checkin/check out procedure to be followed for all Awana age children.

The child will be signed in by by a parent/guardian or other responsible individual who will receive a pager or a “child check” for the child, similar to a claim check. The “child check” or pager is to be presented in order to sign out the child from our care. In the event that it is not possible to present the “child check,” the club director or commander will be contacted. This individual will be be responsible for releasing the child to the care of a parent/guardian or other responsible individual after discussing the surrounding circumstance for this event.

Any pager not returned shall be the financial responsibility of the individual to whom it was issued.

For Awana Staff Only
